

#46

1852

This Old Bell Schoolhouse -which is the oldest standing school left in Utah was originally built in 1852, but burned in 1860. The adobe was reused to rebuild the school . Other uses were: community and dramatic functions, a place for volunteer fireman to keep their equipment, City's Public Library, and currently used by the DUP as a museum.

65 South 100 East

#21

1860

The Ellijah Mayhew House
The lumber for this 1-1/2 story Federal Style frame house was transported by wagon and teams of oxen from the Fountain
Green Canyon.

214 South Main

1865

16

Soft Rock found only in the Pleasant Grove canyon was used to build this rock house by William Ashton, later sold to B.W. Driggs

119 East 200 South

13

1870

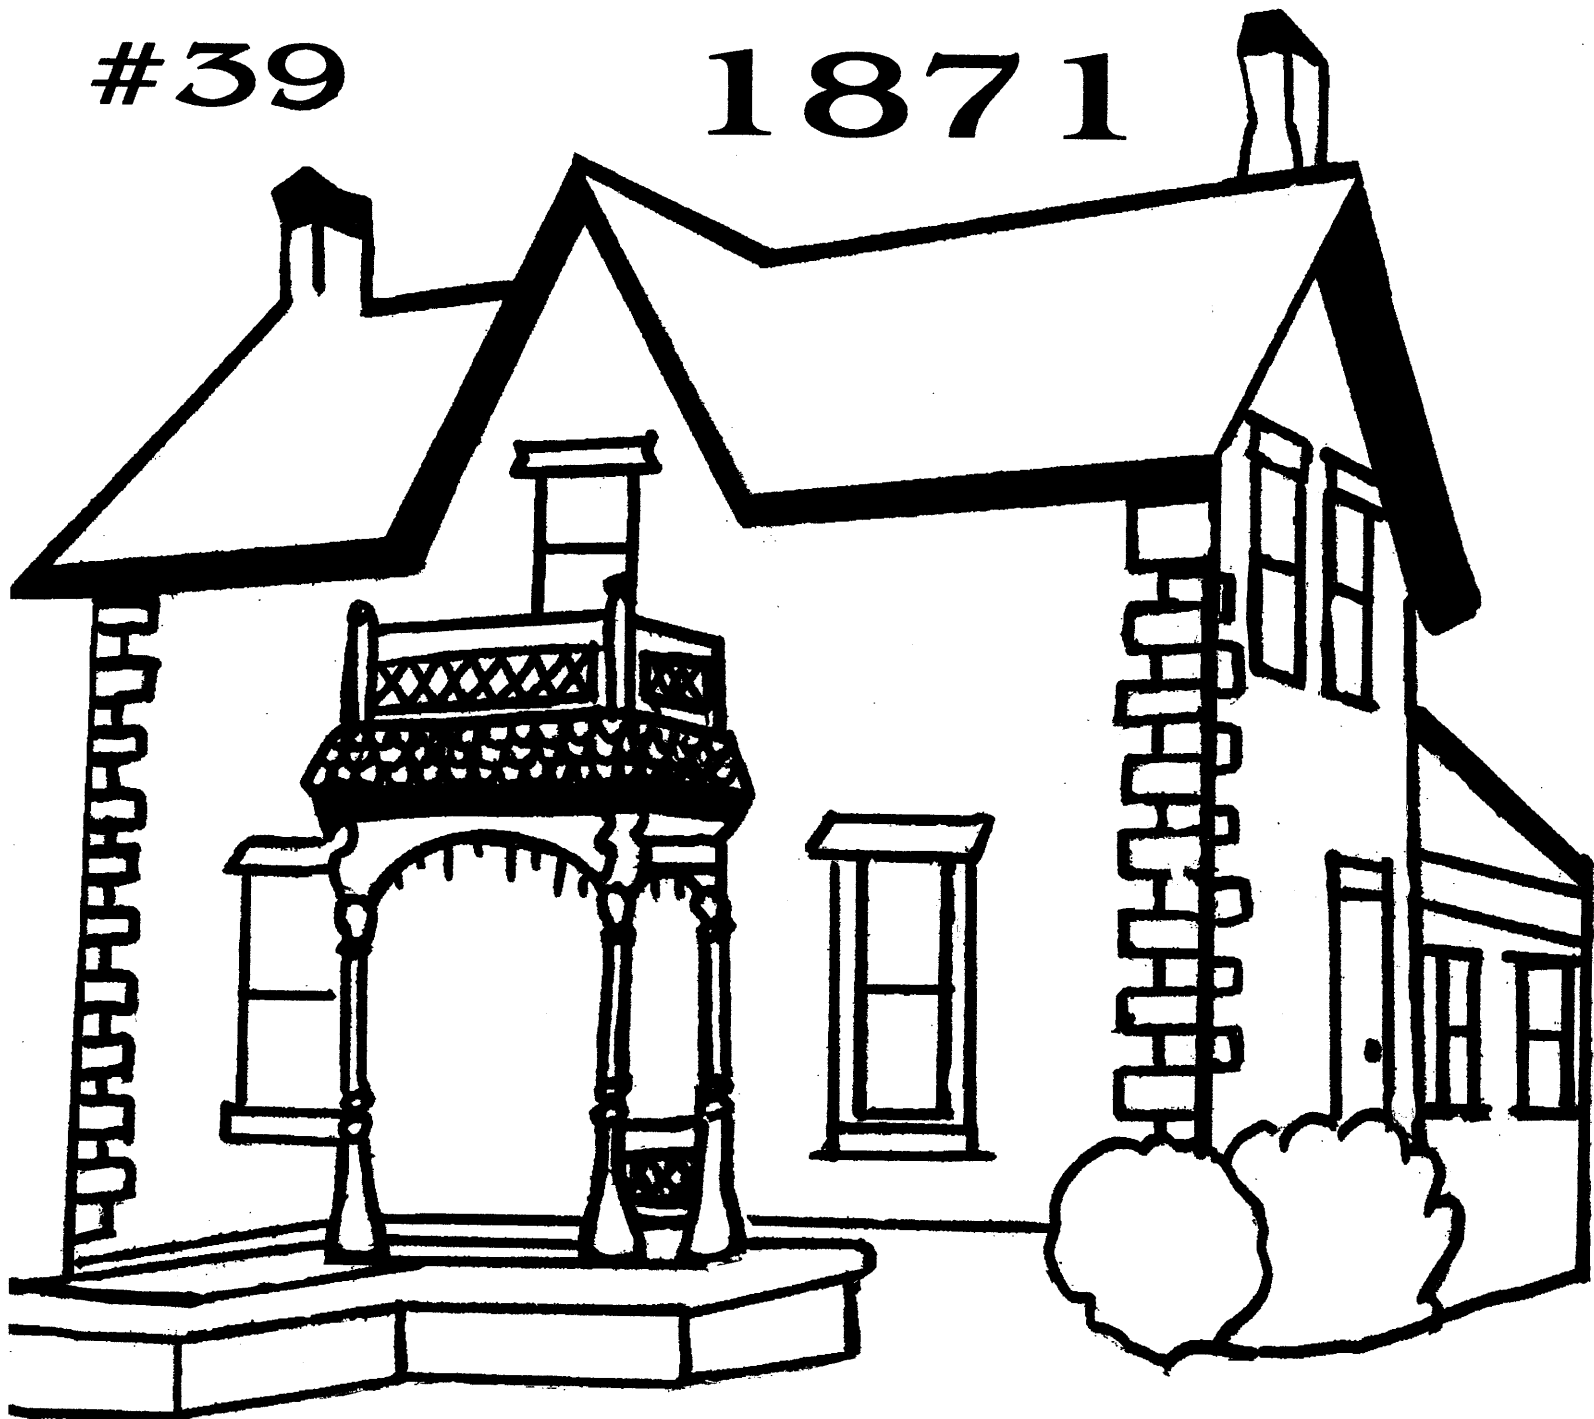

Samuel Green's two story soft rock house was listed in the National Register of Historic Places in 1987. The home remains in the Green Family ownership.

264 East 200 South

#39

1871

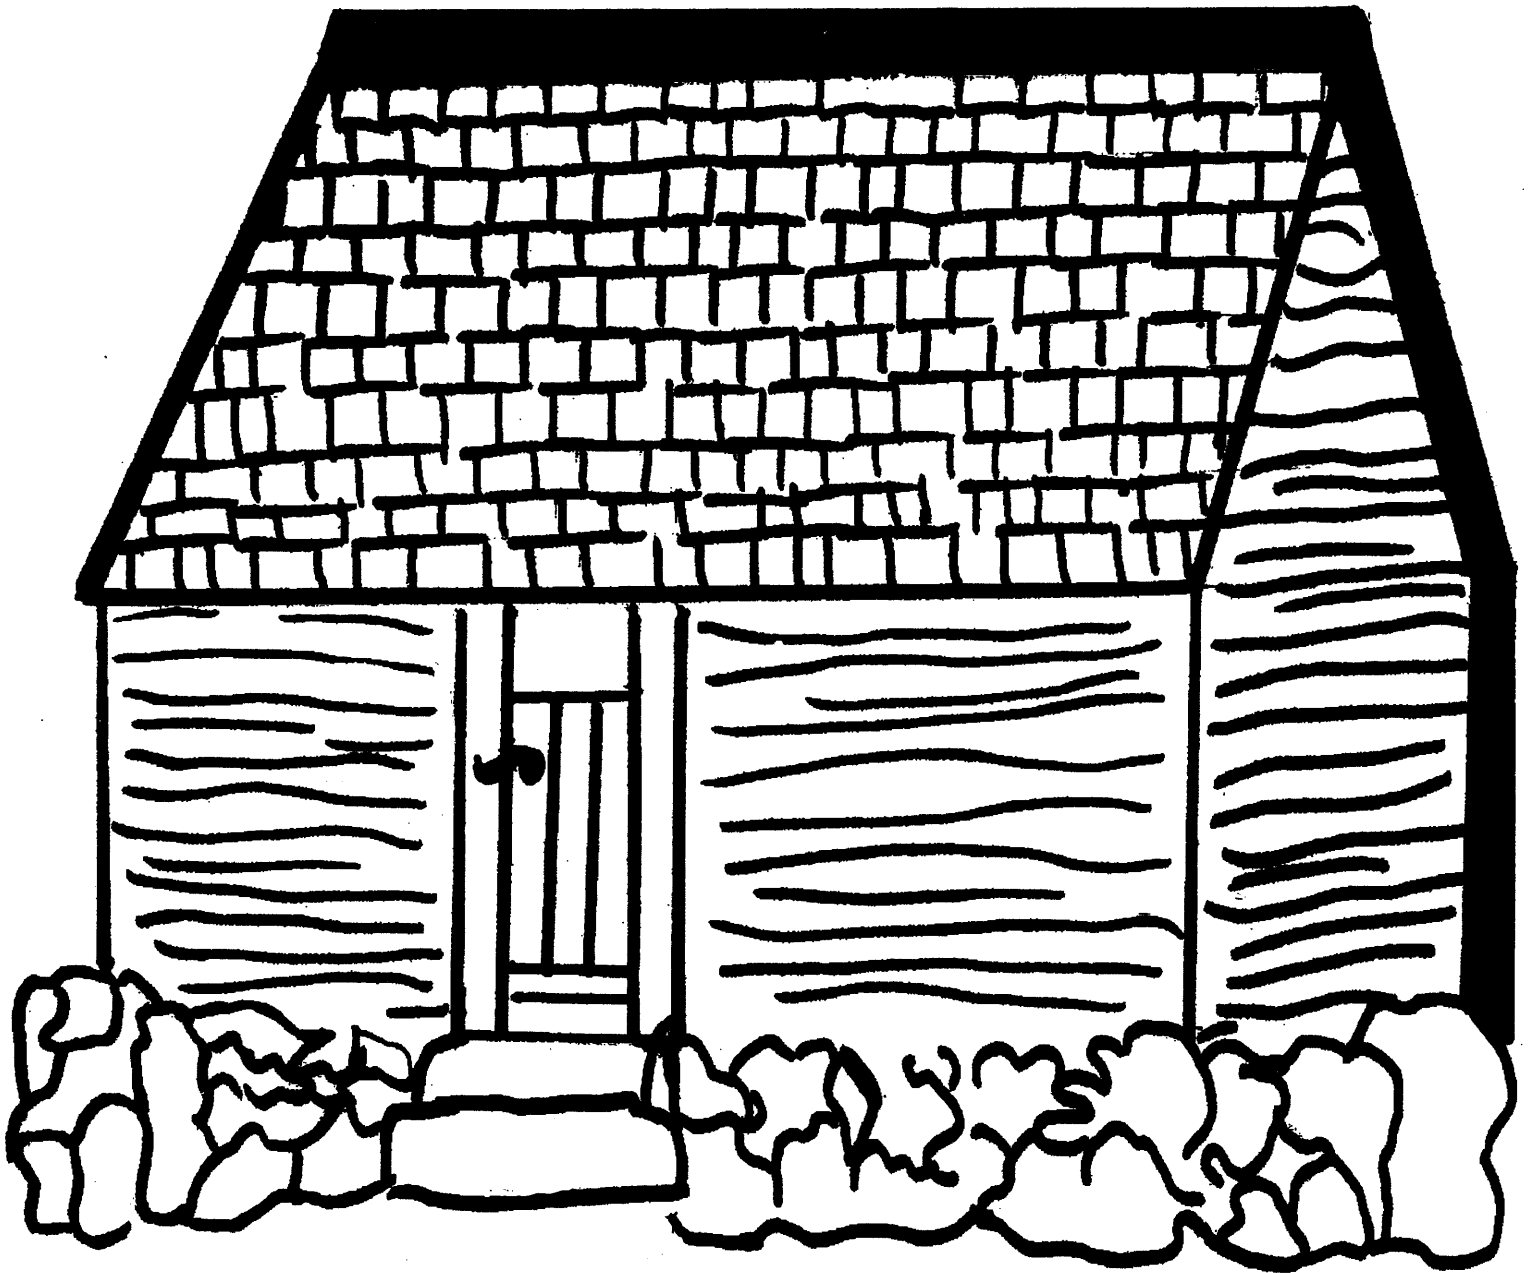

Gothic Revival Style/
Traditional. Soft Rock house was later stuccoed and marked into blocks with corner quoins
added.

55 East Center Street

#47

1874

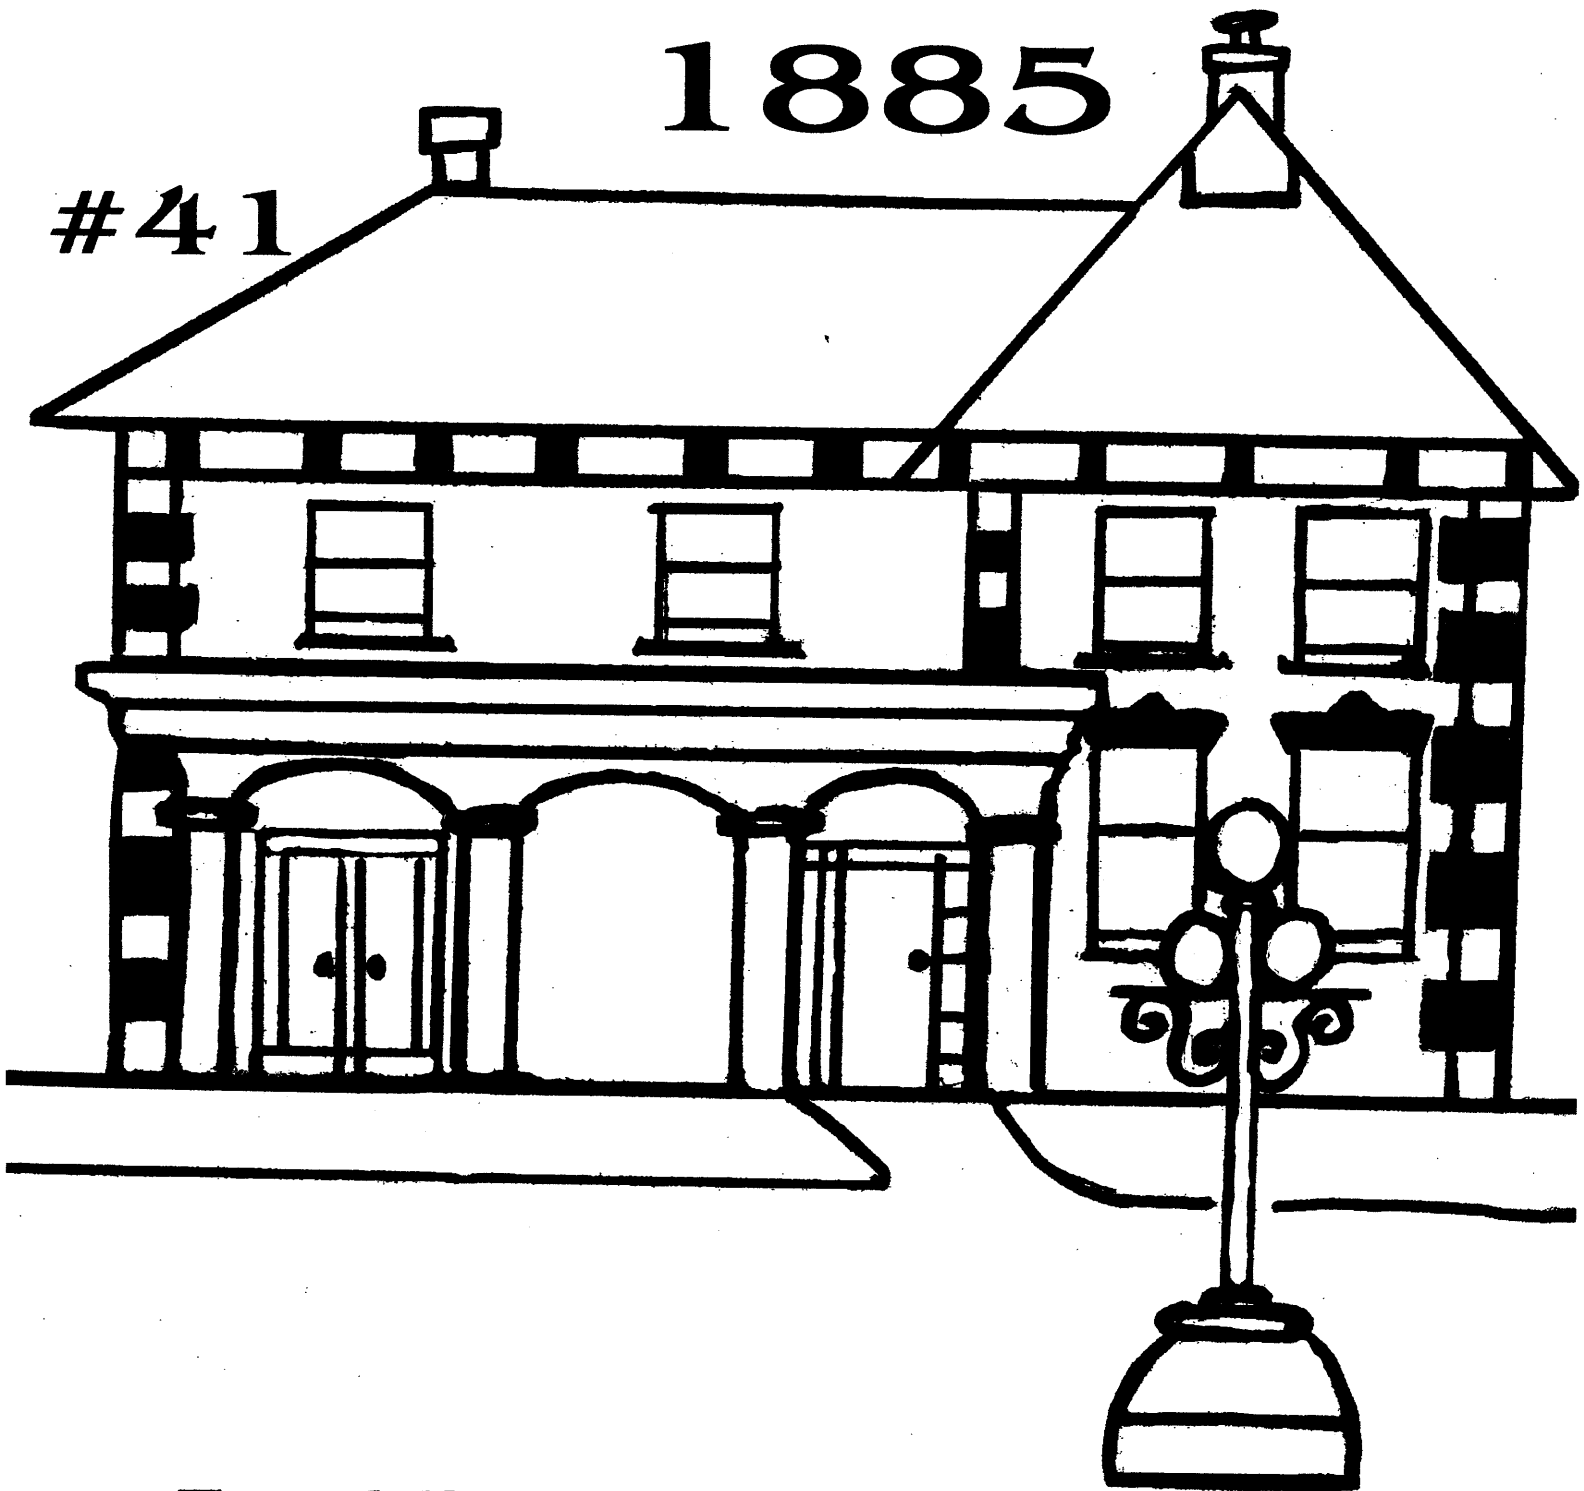

Jeppa and Anna Nelson came from Denmark to Utah. They built this granary in 1874 over their rock-lined dugout, which they lived in until they could build a house.

69 South 100 East

1885

#41

Franklin and Elizabeth Beers had this large Italianate-style house built to serve as their family home and the 1st
Pleasant Grove Hotel.

65 North 100 East

#48

1886-87

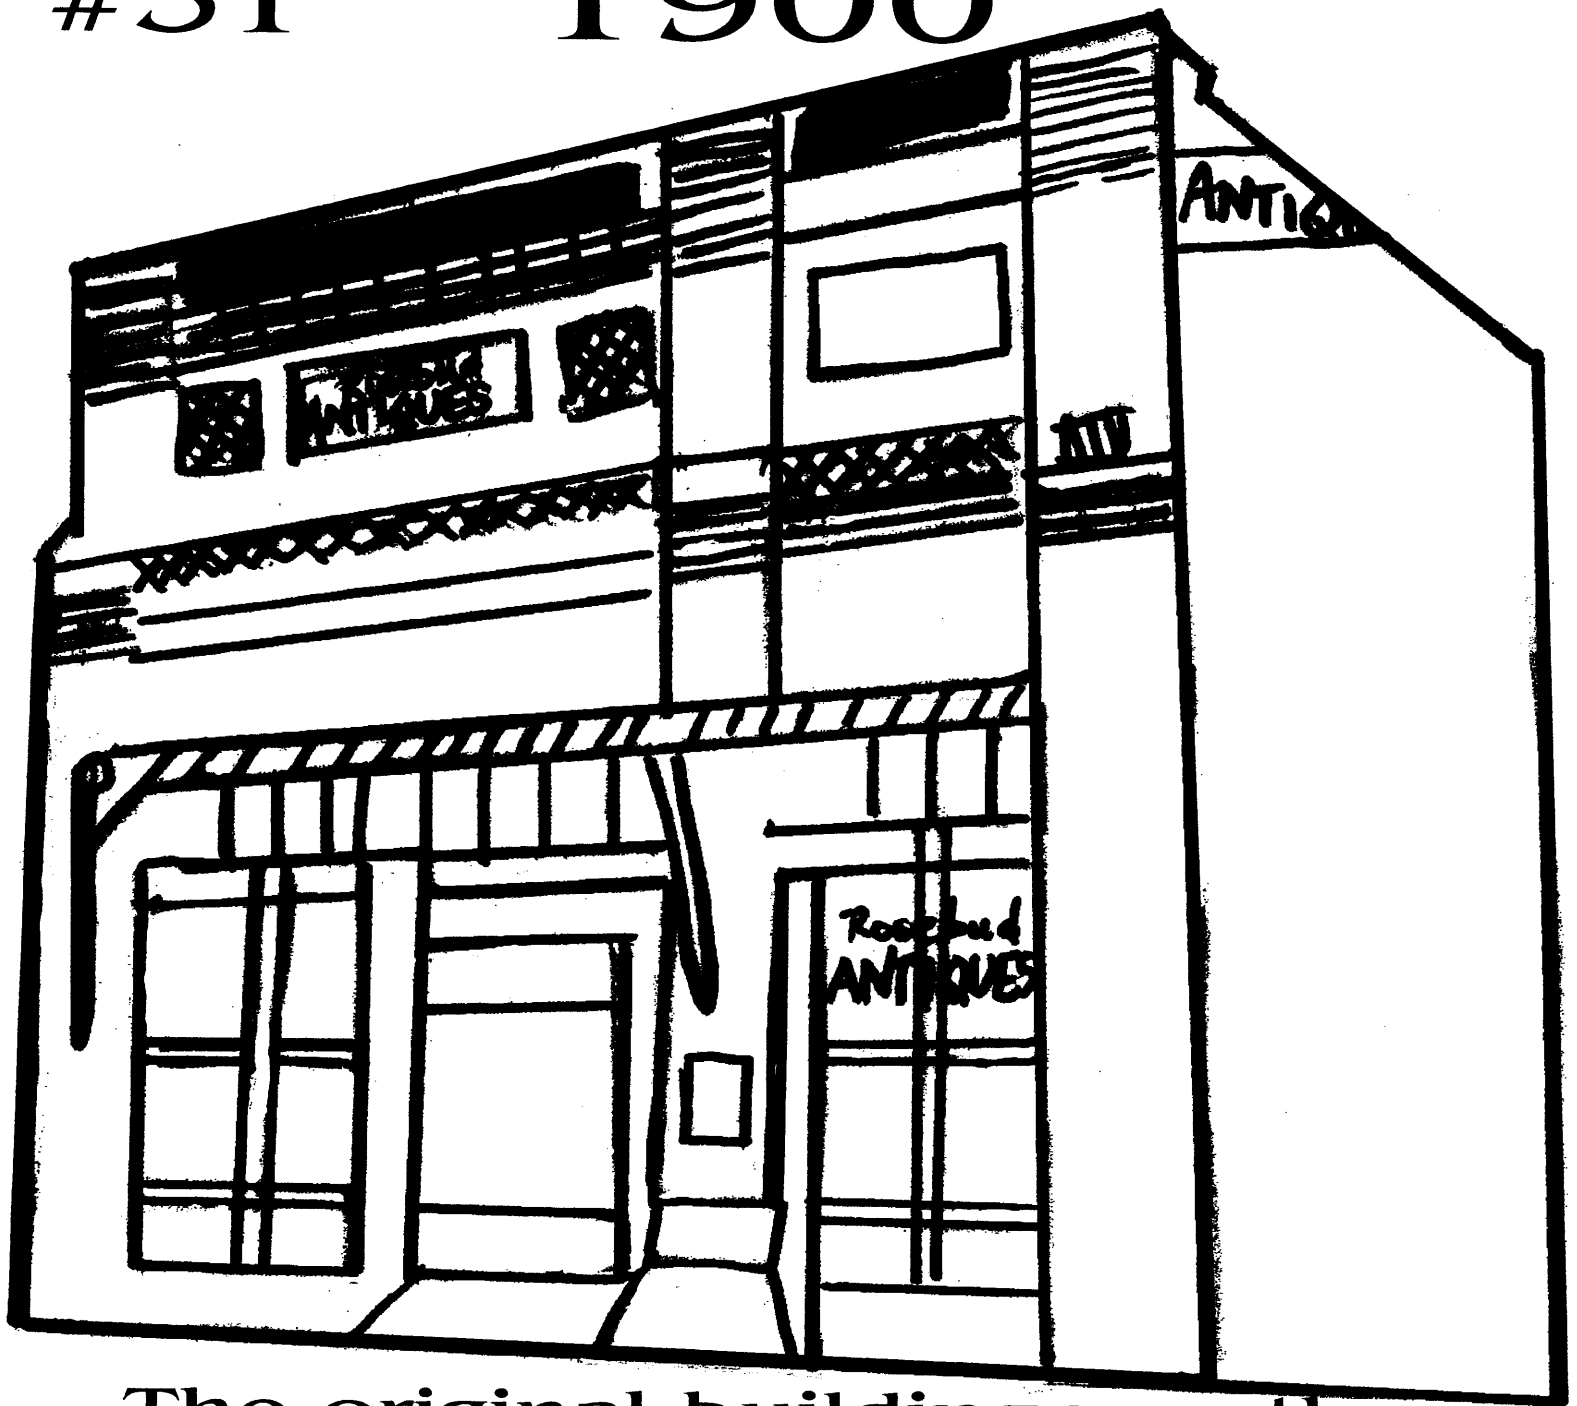

This PG Town Hall was made of soft rock for a total of $115.92. City meetings were held here until 1940. School room, LDS Seminary, First Baptist Church, a cafeteria/cannery and the City Library, were some of its uses in the past.

105 South 100 East

#31 1900

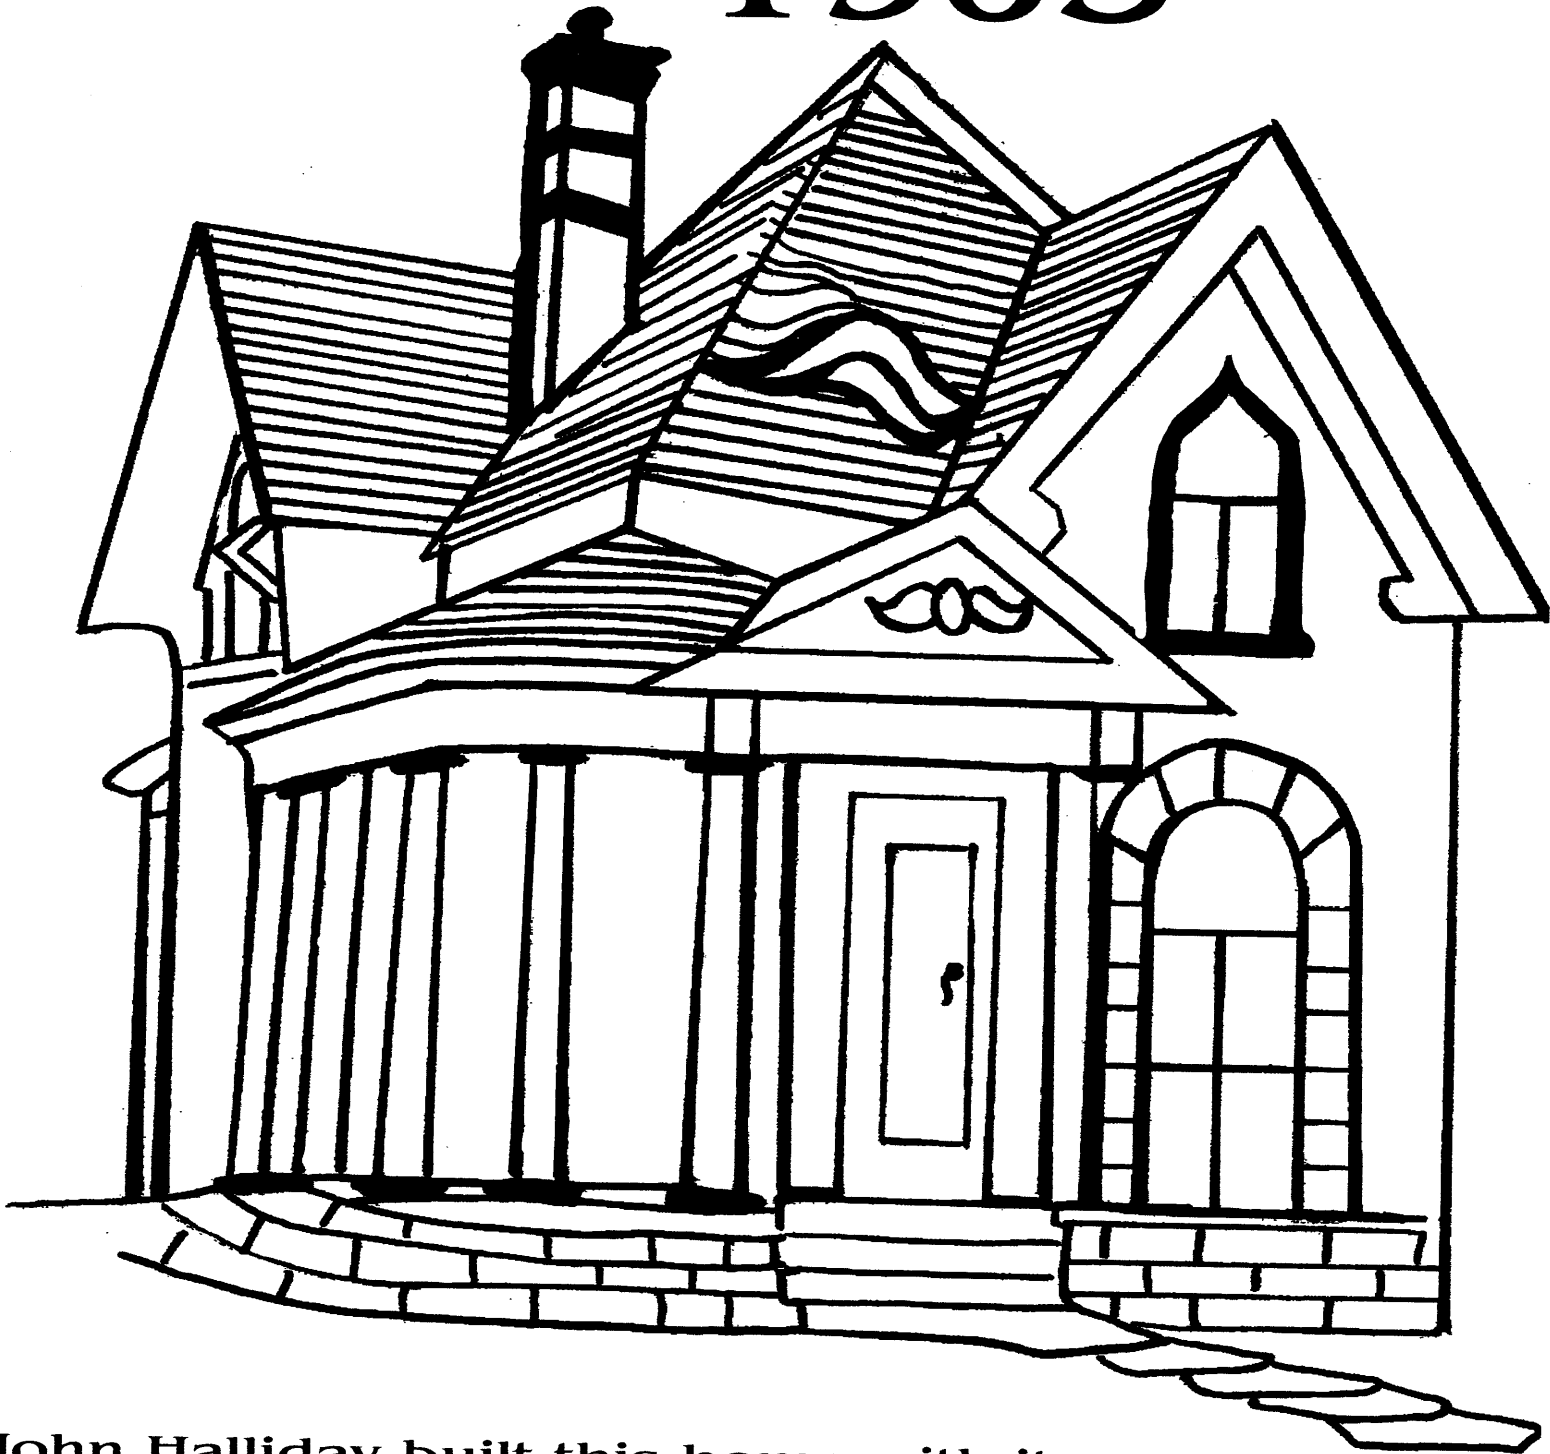

The original building was the Clark Mercantile-men's clothing store, then became a grocery store, a hardware business, and currently is the Rosebud Antique store.

15 South Main

# 17

1903

John Halliday built this home with its pyramidal roof, arched windows, gables, porches and eyelid dormer window which is a great example of houses built between 1902 - 1908. This style was found almost exclusively in Utah County. Don Wadley, current owner, is a descendant of John Halliday.

90 East 200 South

18

1908

Orpheus Dance Hall/Gymnasium.
This recreation center still serves the city for dances, Strawberry Days and boutique rentals.

41 East 200 South

#68

1914

This tithing office was the last constructed of the many built in Utah during the tithing office era. This brick structure cost $2000.00

7 South 300 East

#42

1933

Clifford L. Wright saw this English Tudor Style house in Midvale, Utah and liked it so much that he had it duplicated
here in Pleasant Grove.

90 North 100 East

#71 About 1800

Oscar Winter's Ice House

Blocks of Ice were cut into about four foot cubes. Large Ice Tongs were used to grab the blocks of ice and loaded onto a wagon or large bobsleigh pulled by a team of horses.

135 South 300 East

Fugal Blacksmith Shop built 1904

640 North 400 East